Our national network produces a multiplier effect to reach millions of K-12 students with the power of economic reasoning by training and equipping their teachers. In doing so, we are sending ripples of economic and personal financial education across the country and around the world.

National Association of Economic Educators

www.naee.net

The focus of the National Association of Economic Educators is the professional development of economic educators. NAEE's mission is to be the premier professional organization advancing the growth, service and recognition of economic educators, as they expand economic and financial literacy.

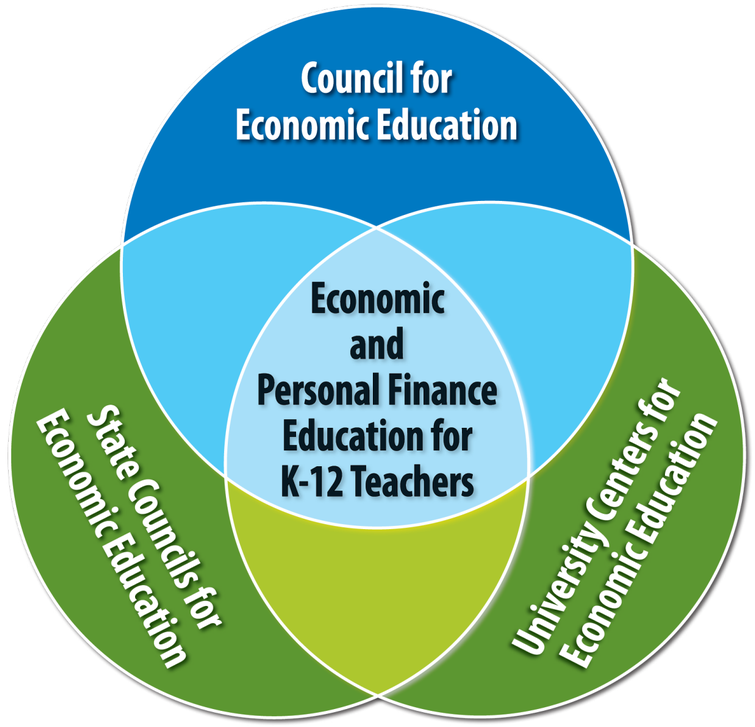
COUNCIL FOR Economic Education

Teaching Opportunity©

www.councilforeconed.org

The Council for Economic Education (CEE) is the leading organization in the United States that focuses on the economic and financial education of students from kindergarten through high school. For 65 years, our mission has been to instill in young people the fourth "R"—a real-world understanding of economics and personal finance. It is only by acquiring economic and financial literacy that children can learn that there are better options for a life well lived, will be able to see opportunity on their horizon line and, ultimately, can grow into successful and productive adults capable of making informed and responsible decisions.

One Network of Affiliated Councils and Centers for Economic Education



One Network of Affiliated Councils and Centers for Economic Education

We invite you to join with the Council for Economic Education (CEE) and our national network of economic educators, along with the support of concerned individuals, businesses, governments and school districts, to provide training programs and resources for teachers. By building the knowledge and skills of teachers in economics and personal financial literacy, we reach millions of students each year. Want to get involved? Please contact one of our network affiliates shown below, and for more information visit CEE at www.councilforeconed.org.
